« INCREASE SOIL FERTILITY FROM KNOWLEDGE TO IMPLEMENTATION OF AN APPROACH ON THE FARM »

This programme can also be consulted directly on the TERREOM website at:

CONTEXT

Soil is an essential resource for agriculture and Humanity. Somewhat neglected by the agronomic model of recent decades, the soil is the place of an intense biological life where the root is in permanent relationship with other living organisms.

This training addresses the topic of soil fertility, the means to measure it and the levers to develop it, as well the most appropriate practices to implement and the way to design a cropping system to develop it. Based on agronomic considerations, it presents the thinking to be put in place at the farm level to change its practices accordingly.

Afterwards, the training should make it possible to evolve towards the implementation of agro-ecological practices and to reduce the use of inputs (fertilizers, phytosanitary products in particular).

OBJECTIVES

UNDERSTAND

how the soil is structured

CONTROL

soil fertility and its forces

UNDERSTAND

the vital role of soil life for its fertility

KNOW HOW TO USE

tools for measuring overall soil fertility

KNOW HOW TO ELABORATE

a cropping system that promotes development of soil fertility

SET UP

agro-ecological practices to reduce the use of inputs (phytosanitary products, fertilizers,...)

TRAINING PLAN

I. The soil, cradle of fertility

- How a soil is structured
- Soil, where worlds meet
- The mainsprings of soil fertility

II. Measure the fertility of the soil

- All the techniques and protocols for measuring the different dimensions of fertility (physical, mineral and biological)
- The importance of organic matter in the construction of the fertility of the soil

III. Establish an approach on the farm

- The different axes of construction of the method
- Focus on the practices to be put in place to increase soil fertility over time

MONITORING AND EVALUATION

Signing of an attendance sheet at the beginning of each half-day

At the end of the training, a certificate will be given to each participant
